MODX8 Synthesizer Piano

This extremely popular and engaging 88 weighted key synthesizer is great for exploring the world of synthesis or for live performances or practice. You can store your favorite piano or synth lead or organ parts conveniently stored on a set list for easy location. Control other midi keyboards with the MODX. Work with your favourite DAW using one USB connection. Choose from literally thousands of preprogrammed instruments or tweak existing ones or make your own, or populate the 88 keybed with several instruments like, a piano and a base and a lead voice or whatever you need or desire.
