Looking for budgies

Age: Young

Size: Small

Gender: Male

Looking for additional budgies to join my current flock of 5. I ordered a XL cage with plenty of space too add some budgies to my current group of budgies. I'd love to get more, I currently allow my budgies free flight time daily and have built a good handling relationship with them. If you have any budgies looking for a home please let me know. I do have a spare cage I can put them in until they get used to the new environment.
