Up for sale is a rugged 2010 Dodge Ram 2500 Power Wagon. The body and chassis have 138,000 kilometers, but a brand new engine worth $15,000 was professionally installed in 2022 and currently has only 19,000 kilometers on it.

This truck is fully equipped for heavy-duty tasks and serious off-roading, featuring electronically locking front and rear differentials and a built-in electric winch. The front end also features an electric sway bar disconnect. Receipts for the engine installation and full detailed mechanical history are available. Excellent mechanical condition. Excellent interior condition. Priced to sell at $25,000. I recently upgraded to a 2026 Power Wagon and don't really need both vehicles. Please text me to receive a link to a detailed video with more features to help you determine if you are interested in a test drive.
